then seven topmasts were carried away between this and Port Natal, When she left England she was steered by a large long iron tiller which when it stood amidships reached close up to the compass—when it was put up or down the needle was attracted by it and followed it-and the helmsman was too far off to see it, which however we imagine did not much signify, under the circumstance.

This had to be remedied at the first port

At about two in the afternoon H. R. H. the Prince of Wales perived at the Grand Stand and was cheered, both on his way down and on his arrival at Epsom. I met a gentleman who had been to the Derby for the last 12 years, never missing one, and it was his opinion that the crowd this year was larger than he had ever seen; and it was generally reported that there were two hundred thousand persons present. The rup itself I will not describe-have; sufficient to say, that the first and second favorites ran second and third, and that Mr. W. J'Anson' Blair Athol was registered as the winner by

In Politics, I have only to refer you to the debate on the Governmental Policy in China and in which Lord Palmerston for the first time since his illness, made a masterly speech, The speakers were Mr. Baxter, of course Col. Sykes, and Lord Nass, And the debate ended as they always do-on subjects sofar away from home-in nothing. The China question is shortly to he brought again, before the House by Mr. Cobden, when it will be fully discussed. The last news from America dated May 14 from New York has caused great excitement. here. Then of course the isports are garbled. there can be little doubt that general Grant has been defeated and with the reputed tear. ful loss of 40.000 men! When this fratricula war will end it is impossible to say. but without much attempt at phonbecy it is comparatively easy to foresee the Union can never be consolidated. It is probable that Butler of New Orleans infumy, will be the new President of the North. There is nothing of any importance to communicate with reference to the Danish war. The armistice still gues on and the Conference met today with a view to further discussion. It is reported that the two points to be brought forward, whether to continue the war or adopt a system which will give satisfaction to Danes and Germans alike. This system would be the constitution of Holstoin and the German portion of Schleswig in a single state and the remainder of fachleswip to be emitted to the Donish monarchy.

There is to be a grand Volunteer Review on Saturday next to celebrate the Qucon's Birthday. It is to take place in Ilyde Park and the Prince of Wales is to review them. Closing my brief better with the same apology I commenced I remain. - &c.
